

DRIVING RISKS @ WORK SEMINAR

Occupational Road Risk - Ask the Experts

Thursday 15th September 2011 - Hamilton

Are you running a small or medium sized organisation in the Hamilton area?

Do you have responsibility for drivers, vehicles of company policy?

If you answer yes to the above then this FREE seminar is for you.

A third of all road crashes involve someone who is driving for work purposes so it makes good business sense to manage occupational road risk.

The seminar will:

- Look at the business benefits in managing occupational road risk.
- Help you find out more about the issues involving driving for work.
- Allow you the opportunity to ask questions from the experts.
- Provide you with business to business networking opportunities to help identify best practice for your organisation.
- Signpost you to ongoing advice, information and support to help put in place company policies and minimise road risk.

Venue: Chatelherault Country Park
Banqueting Hall and Auditorium
Carlisle Road, Ferniegair, Hamilton. ML3 7UA

Date: Thursday 15th September 2011.

Time: 1000-1600 hours

Costs: No Costs Involved

Lunch and refreshments will be provided

This Seminar has been funded by the Scottish Centre for Healthy Working Lives, supported by the members of the Scottish Occupational Road Safety Alliance and facilitated by RoSPA Scotland.
